Advent Candle Ritual for the First Sunday of Advent – Year A

Priest: As we celebrate the season of Advent we think again of the love of God for us, endless and ever new, symbolised in this circle of greenery. The candles of the wreath signify the way how this eternal and all-embracing love has been manifested in time, and will be manifest forever when the Lord appears in glory. On this First Sunday of Advent, we bless our Advent wreath, and light the first of the candles, looking forward to the Day of the Lord.

Blessing of Advent Wreath

Priest: Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: He is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, he is the Saviour of every nation. Lord God, Let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The wreath is sprinkled with holy water. Then one candle is lit.

Priest: Christ we sit in darkness, but you are our light.

All: We long for Christ's coming into our hearts and into our world.

Priest: Our lives have been shaken by fire and drought and storm; our security has been shaken by bombings and wars and uncertainty.

All: We wait in hope for God's light to penetrate our darkness and radiate within us.

Priest: In the midst of our doubts and our insecurities we are reminded that God's faithfulness reaches to the ends of the earth.

All: We watch for new light to shine as the season of joy approaches.

Priest: Christ we sit in darkness, but you are our light.

All: We long for Christ's coming into our hearts and into our world.

Priest: Our lives have been shaken by fire and drought and storm; our security has been shaken by bombings and wars and uncertainty.

All: We wait in hope for God's light to penetrate our darkness and radiate within us.

Priest: In the midst of our doubts and our insecurities we are reminded that God's faithfulness reaches to the ends of the earth.

All: We watch for new light to shine as the season of joy approaches.

Priest: Christ is our rock and our refuge, an ever present help in trouble.

All: We wait in hope, attentive to all the signs of Christ's coming.

Priest: May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen.

Priest: Let us pray. Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God, the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at his coming, so that, gathered at his right hand, they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen

The CWF November 2025 appeal continues this weekend 29th/30th November 2025. During this time we NEED to collect $80,000. You can find the envelopes in the pews. Thank you for your generosity. May God bless you!

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR A
SUNDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER, 2025

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 24:1-3

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

1st Reading Isaiah 2:1-5

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In the days to come the mountain of the Temple of the Lord shall tower above the mountains and be lifted higher than the hills. All the nations will stream to it, peoples without number will come to it; and they will say: 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Temple of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths; since the Law will go out from Zion, and the oracle of the Lord from Jerusalem.' He will wield authority over the nations and adjudicate between many peoples; these will hammer their swords into ploughshares, their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, there will be no more training for war. O House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 121:1-2. 4-5. 6-9. R. see v.1.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

2nd Reading Romans 13:11-14

You know 'the time' has come: you must wake up now: our salvation is even nearer than it was when we were converted. The night is almost over, it will be daylight soon – let us give up all the things we prefer to do under the cover of the dark; let us arm ourselves and appear in the light. Let us live decently as people do in the daytime: no drunken orgies, no promiscuity or licentiousness, and no wrangling or jealousy. Let your armour be the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation Psalm 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia! Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation. Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: 'As it was in Noah's day, so will it be when the Son of Man comes. For in those days before the Flood people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept all away. It will be like this when the Son of Man comes. Then of two men in the fields one is taken, one left; of two women at the millstone grinding, one is taken, one left. 'So stay awake, because you do not know the day when your master is coming. You may be quite sure of this that if the householder had known at what time of the night the burglar would come, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed anyone to break through the wall of his house. Therefore, you too must stand ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Communion Antiphon Ps 84:13

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.
