We will be screening The Chronicles of Narnia, a story rich in Christian symbolism, including themes of sacrifice, redemption, courage, and the triumph of good over evil. Many see the character of Aslan as a reflection of Christ's love and self-giving sacrifice.

Parents and carers are required to remain at the event and supervise their children throughout the evening.

Snacks and Light supper will be provided.

Trinity Sunday Celebrating the Mystery of God's Love

This Sunday, we celebrate Trinity Sunday, a feast that invites us to reflect on the mystery of the one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Trinity is not just a doctrine to be studied - it is a relationship to be lived. It reminds us that at the heart of God is communion, love, and unity. Just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united in perfect love, we are called to live in harmony with God and one another.

Let us rejoice in this mystery - not to fully understand it, but to enter into it with faith, wonder, and love.

Glory be to the Father, who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.
Glory be to the Son, who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.
Glory be to the Holy Spirit, who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.
Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever. Amen.

Come spend an hour with me in the Blessed Sacrament. In the quiet presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, take time to rest, pray, and simply be still.

A sign-up sheet is available at the church entrances.

Please do not leave the Blessed Sacrament unattended.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

After prayerful consideration and consultation with the PPC members, we will gradually move towards removing the printed readings from the bulletin. This decision has been made with a desire to show greater reverence and care for the Word of God. At times, bulletins containing the Sacred Scriptures are unintentionally discarded, and we wish to ensure that God's Word is always treated with the respect and dignity it deserves.

As we are reminded in Scripture: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." Psalms: 105

We encourage parishioners to continue praying with the readings through their own Bible, missal, or digital resources as we take this step together as a parish community. This transition will take place from the first weekend of July.

At the same time, we recognise that some parishioners may still appreciate having the readings available in printed form. If this would be helpful, we will gladly look at ways of providing these for those who need them.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program is for adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, becoming Catholic, or completing the Sacraments of Initiation. For more information, please contact the Parish Office. Next meeting, Sunday 31st May at 4:30pm in the Parish Centre.

New encyclical of Pope Leo XIV

Pope Leo XIV 1st encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas ("Magnificent Humanity"), exploring how faith, human dignity, and Catholic social teaching speak to the challenges of today's world - especially in the age of artificial intelligence. An encyclical is one of the most important teaching documents a Pope can write, offering guidance for the Church and the world on significant moral and social issues. This powerful and thought-provoking letter invites us to reflect on what it means to be truly human, how we care for one another, and how technology should always serve the dignity of the human person. We encourage all parishioners to take some time to read or explore this important document.

View or download the encyclical from the Holy See website: <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/encyclicals/documents/20260515-magnifica-humanitas.html>

Women always have more questions than men have answers to.

About six or seven months ago, a husband gets a text one day. The text says: 'Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck.' He walks into the kitchen where his wife is and says: 'Hey, I just got a text. It said, "Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck."' She says, 'Was he driving?' He says, 'I don't know. I just got a text saying, "Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck."' She says, 'Were Carol and the kids in the car with him?' 'I don't know. I just got a text saying, "Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck."' 'Were the people in the other car hurt?' 'I don't know. I just got a text saying, "Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck."' 'What hospital did they take him to?' 'I don't know! I just got a text saying, "Please pray for Tom. He was in a bad wreck."' Finally she says: 'Well, you don't know anything! What do you know?' He says: 'I know you need to pray for Tom. I just got a text saying he was in a bad wreck. That's all I got.'

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY, YEAR A
31ST MAY, 2026

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading Exodus 34:4-6. 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm Dn 3:52-56. R. v.52
(R.) Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation See Apocalypse 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel John 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Communion Antiphon Galatians 4:6
