HOLY COMMUNION UNDER BOTH SPECIES

We are pleased to be able to offer Holy Communion under both species at our weekend Masses, allowing the faithful to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. To help ensure the reverent and orderly distribution of the Eucharist, please familiarise yourself with the following liturgical instructions.

Sunday Mass – Liturgical Instructions

1. Distribution of Holy Communion

At Sunday Masses, Holy Communion under both species (the Body and Blood of Christ) will be offered exclusively in the main aisle.

2. Indicating the Desired Form of Reception

To ensure an orderly and reverent distribution of Holy Communion, the following gestures will indicate how the faithful wish to receive:

- Communion under both species: The communicant should approach with their mouth open, indicating their desire to receive the Host dipped into the Precious Blood (intinction).

Communion under one species: The communicant should extend their hands in the customary manner to receive the Sacred Host.

3. Manner of Distribution

For those receiving Holy Communion under both species, the priest or acolyte will dip the Sacred Host into the Precious Blood and reverently place the intincted Host directly on the communicant's tongue.

4. Instructions for Acolytes – Preparation of Sacred Vessels

Acolytes are kindly requested to prepare two additional sacred vessels specifically for the distribution of Holy Communion by intinction.

Please observe the following arrangements:

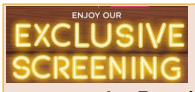

- The chalice containing the Precious Blood should be filled to approximately half its capacity.
- The Sacred Hosts should be placed separately on the designated side of the vessel arrangement.

All sacred vessels must be prepared and handled with the utmost reverence and care, in accordance with the Church's liturgical norms.

5. Reverence and Liturgical Dignity

All acolytes and faithful are asked to observe these arrangements with reverence, dignity and respect for the Most Holy Eucharist. May the reception of Holy Communion deepen our faith, strengthen our unity in Christ and remind us of the sacred gift of His Body and Blood.

May the Lord bless us as we gather around His altar.

November - Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory

Remembering Our Loved Ones

Praying for the souls in Purgatory is a beautiful way to remember those who have gone before us in faith. Our love for them does not end at death. Through prayer, we entrust them to God's mercy, asking Him to bring them into the fullness of His heavenly glory.

We warmly invite you to continue praying for your deceased loved ones throughout November. November Mass envelopes will be available throughout the month for you to submit the names of those you wish to remember. Father Dariusz will offer Masses for all deceased souls, entrusting them to God's loving care.

As we pray for the departed, we are reminded of our own journey towards holiness and our hope in the promise of eternal life.

In November, the Catholic Church offers special plenary indulgences for the faithful departed, which can help free souls from purgatory. To gain these indulgences, specific acts and conditions must be fulfilled:

Indulgences for the Faithful Departed (November 1-8):
1. Visit a Cemetery: Each day from November 1 to 8, visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased. This indulgence can be applied to one soul per day.
2. Visit a Church on All Souls' Day (November 2): By visiting a church or oratory on All Souls' Day, reciting the Our Father and the Creed, a plenary indulgence can be gained.

Conditions to Receive a Plenary Indulgence:
1. Sacramental Confession (within about 20 days before or after the indulgenced act).
2. Receive Holy Communion (preferably on the same day).
3. Pray for the Intentions of the Holy Father (e.g., an Our Father and Hail Mary).
4. Complete Detachment from Sin, even venial sin.

If these conditions are not fully met, the indulgence is partial. The Church encourages the faithful to take advantage of these indulgences as acts of charity for those in purgatory during November.

November Mass Intention Envelopes
As we approach the month of November, we invite you to take a November Mass Intention Envelope and write the names of those you wish to remember in prayer.
Throughout November, Holy Mass will be offered daily for all those whose names have been included in those intentions.

May the Lord, rich in mercy, grant them eternal rest and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

SPECIAL - THE PARISH MEMORIAL WALL PLAQUES
In recognition of November as the month of the Holy Souls, we are encouraging parishioners to purchase Memorial Plaques to be installed on the Memorial Wall, in memory of their loved ones. Plaques are available for $300 (single), $350 (double). There is a minimum 4 week delivery so get your order in soon, so that plaques can be installed for the month of November. Collect a Memorial Application Form from the foyer or the Parish Office.

A Step Forward for a Christian Chapel at Bankstown Hospital

We give thanks for an important milestone as a motion by Deputy Mayor Rachelle Harika supporting a dedicated Christian chapel at the new Bankstown Hospital was unanimously passed by the local council.
While this is a wonderful step forward, our mission is not yet complete. The proposal must still progress through the various levels of government. Please continue to pray for this intention, sign the petition if you have not already, and share it with family, friends and fellow Christians.
Above all, we give thanks to God and pray that His loving presence, through prayer and the Sacraments, will be available to patients, families and staff at the new Bankstown Hospital.

Dear Parishioners,
Our Blessed Mother is seeking your generous support to complete her place with a beautiful stainless-steel enclosure and lighting around our her statue.

The project requires:
- 8 × 1-metre 316-grade stainless-steel posts.
- 12 meters of 6 mm 316 stainless-steel chain.
- 2 outdoor stainless-steel LED lights.

Estimated cost: $6000. Our goal is to raise $6,000 to complete the project to a high-quality and durable standard.

The Church especially encourages offering Masses for the faithful departed, entrusting them to God's mercy and love. If you wish to offer a Mass intention, please take a Mass envelope from the foyer, write the intention clearly, and return it to the Parish Office or to Father. Masses will be celebrated on the next available date, or on a requested date if possible.
